IN-HOME TELEVISION APP

Registration

The Cordless Cable platform, over which our FlexTV In-Home Television App runs, can be downloaded directly from Google Play, the Apple App Store, Amazon App Store, and select smart TVs. It can also be watched directly from most browsers, including Chrome, Firefox, Opera, and others.

To use out FlexTV In-Home Television App through Cordless Cable, you must first register it for each device that you plan to use it on. Doing so involves going through a few easy and quick steps which may be presented slightly differently depending on device.

Note: An account can have up to FIVE devices registered at a time. You may swap each registered device once per month.

Step

1

First, you need to download Cordless Cable on your smartphone, smart TV, Amazon Firestick, or other compatible device. We use the Cordless Cable platform to deliver our FlexTV In-Home Television App.

Alternatively, if you prefer to use FlexTV in your internet browser of choice, please visit <https://app.cordlesscable.com/>.

Supported App Stores

Google Play Store

Step

2

Once you have downloaded and installed your application, or have visited the supplied URL, you will be prompted to enter in some information.

Depending on the application (see screenshots on the following page), you may be asked to enter this information in steps or all at once:

- Choose your preferred app language. Currently available languages include ENGLISH and FRENCH.

- Enter the Account Token that was provided to you in your Account Activation Email during signup into the available text field.

You can also find your Account Token in the Setting Option () of any previously Registered Device.

- Choose a name for your device. This will help you differentiate one device from another, for example "Sarah's iPad" and "Basement Firestick".

Step

3

Once the needed information has been supplied, you are done and your device is ready to start accessing FlexTV.

You may need to refresh the webpage or reload the app if you are not immediately brought to the home screen .
